PLACERO, FOR CHICAGO.
BOMBING FILIPINOS.
JAPAN'S COMMON SENSE.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30.—On the hot sidewalk in front of the Biltmore hotel this morning these surprising words were heard: "Yes sir, Chicago is a fine place; there is no city on earth like Chicago."

It was a Los Angeles taxicab driver talking, making himself agreeable to a newly-arrived Chicagoan.

In a month that Chicagoan will say that Chicago is wonderful, but Los Angeles is extraordinary.

A year later, probably, he will be moving his family out here.

This state will have 20,000,000 population before the end of the century.

Renewed attacks on Filipino workers in this state. A bomb exploded under a Filipino lodging house in Stockton, blew dozens of Asiatic workers out of bed. Nobody killed.

Fifteen thousand Filipinos in Stockton, largest colony in California, are distributed as farmhands in the delta region by labor contractors. They get work readily while many white men are unemployed. That explains the rioting.

It is said by farmers that Filipinos with small deft hands and fingers work the fields under intensive cultivation better than the whites. That does not comfort whites, out of work.

The state has taken precautions to prevent the Filipinos obtaining firearms.

And after yesterday's bombing, state athletic authorities notified prize fight promoters that no Filipinos must appear in the ring.

The little islanders, in the light-weight classes, have a disagreeable habit of winning their fights.

This enrages the noble white man who considers a successful prize fighting a proof of superiority.

Mr. Stinson, secretary of state, speaking for this government in Europe, broadcasts the opinion that submarines are "ruthless, inhuman instruments of warfare," and should be abolished.

Japan yesterday presented a demand for 80,000 tons of submarines, enough under good management to sink everything afloat.

Secretary Stinson represents Japan's representatives talk common sense.

Mr. Ginn and Mr. Dunning "undercover men" for prohibition in Seattle, arranged with bootleggers "to complete a big whiskey deal," to get evidence.

The deal completed, Ginn, standing on the running board of the bootleg automobile, snapped a handcuff on one bootlegger. He was knocked from the running board and savagely kicked as he lay on the ground.

Mr. Dunning was kidnapped in the bootlegger's automobile, and while a woman in it attempted to strangle him the bootleggers beat him.

He who thinks he understands the character and emotions of women deceive himself.

Mrs. Della "Doc" Lee, manicure lady who lived here, sent $50 to her sister, writing, "I think something is going to happen. If it does and Howard gets me, bury me in white with yellow roses in my hand. This money will pay for the dress."

Her womanly intuition did not deceive her. Something did happen. Howard, 28-year-old mechanical engineer, called. She shot him dead as he slept, killed herself and as presumably wearing the white dress, holding the yellow roses.

SALEM AGAIN LOSES ACTION

Thomas Carr Gets $2,000 Verdict
In One Of Sewer Cases
Filed In Court

Salem, Jan. 30.—A jury in common pleas court has returned a verdict for $2,000 in favor of the plaintiff in the case of Thomas Carr against the City of Salem.

This is one of the numerous "sewer" damage actions that has been filed against the municipal corporation, a number of which have been disposed of and a few others still pending.

The plaintiff in this case sued to recover $5,000 damages. Ten of the 12 jurors signed the verdict.

Springer is present as a delegate from the Salem board of education which voted to send a representative at its January meeting on recommendation of Supt. J. S. Alan.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 30.—With only the roofs of farmhouses showing above the flood waters in many sections of Posey county, relief forces today attempted to battle the advance of the most alarming flood of Indiana's history.

Ice cores in the Wabash river are causing the flood waters to spread with unprecedented rapidity across the lowlands south of New Harmony, Ind.

Sections of Illinois also are fighting the water's advance.

No complete estimate of the sickness, suffering and damage is available, but aviators carrying food to the territory report the ice-laden water have already covered a section 15 miles wide.

Near New Harmony 18 families are marooned without food and with little shelter. Ten persons are isolated in a house on Ribeyre island in the Wabash. These, together with a score of sufferers on cutoff islands were given food yesterday by aviators who dropped the supplies in small parachutes.

Stories brought here by residents who escaped the flood tide indicated that barns and homes are filled with ice. Farm animals have been frozen in their stalls and have had no food for days.

Many residents are believed to have died in their homes from starvation and exposure, but Red Cross workers are unable to reach the more remote places because of treacherous ice fields and strong currents.

EDUCATORS MEET IN OHIO CAPITAL

Columbiana Co. Leaders Attend Meeting At State House

Lisbon, Jan. 30.—Following a call issued by J. L. Clifton, state director of education for a meeting of county and other school superintendents, County Superintendent of Schools H. C. Leonard of Lisbon left for Columbus Wednesday afternoon accompanied by E. P. Stonebraker of the Leetonia schools.

The conference opened this morning in the house of representatives with an address by President George F. Rightmire of Ohio State university, who was followed by Gov. Myers Y. Cooper.

A state program of guidance was referred to by Clifton.

This evening there will be a state conference of county school superintendents.

Superintendents attending Columbus conference are: F. J. Sewall, Columbiana; L. D. Kepner, superintendent of Lisbon schools; and assistant county school superintendent L. X. Johnson.

It has been explained by Dr. Clifton that approximately 5 per cent of the freshmen in certain schools are failing in one or more subjects the first year of their college work, and that only about 7 per cent of children entering the first grade enter college. Dr. Clifton has also declared that approximately 50 per cent of the students graduating from high school, which leave a large percentage of boys and girls who do not continue their education beyond the high school level.

Village Residents Plan Church Sale

Residents of the village of New Albany will hold a general meeting for the purpose of considering the sale of the old community church building, at the church Friday night.

Persons interested in the church property are backing a movement to sell the building but opposition is made to the sale by other residents of the village for sentimental reasons.

The church was established 20 years ago and was in use by the village and surrounding community until three years ago. Since that time, it is reported, the doors have never been opened, former members of the congregation all attending services in Salem and Greenford churches.

Unarmed Prisoner Attends Funeral

New Philadelphia, O., Jan. 30.—The world is getting better. This was proved when Common Pleas Judge E. E. Lindsay granted permission to prisoner, Roy Davis, to go to New Mansfield, unaccompanied to attend the funeral of his seven-year-old son, Billy, who succumbed to spinal meningitis. Another son, Leonard, 18 months old, is ill of the same disease.

Davis, who has been in jail since Friday, Dec. 13, promised to return in a week.

DOCTORS FIND SLAYER INSANE

George Nick Not Mentally

In Killing Man

Lisbon, O., Jan. 30.—George Nick, 38, of Lisbon who admitted shooting Christ Bazaras, last December, is insane according to a report of Dr. Arthur G. Hyde, superintendent of the Massillon State hospital, who with Dr. Seward Harris, of Lisbon, conducted an investigation.

Nick is suffering from a mental trouble classified as a paranoid state and entertains delusions of persecutions and infidelity. He also has hallucinations of hearing and seeing, according to the report.

He was insane at the time of the shooting and is still insane, it is held by the physicians.

Common Pleas Judge W. F. Jones will probably order a jury to further investigate the man's mentality. The investigation was conducted at the request of Prosecuting Attorney John E. Baucknecht.

Progress Made By All Nations

London, Jan. 30.—The old controversy between France and Great Britain was thrown on the table at the first fully open plenary session of the London naval arms conference today.

It was discussed by the spokesmen of all five powers at the conference save Japan. Then on the motion of Secretary of State Stimson, it was referred to steering committee which will consider the question.

Although it has not been decided definitely, the committee probably will consist of two delegates from each power, but its personnel was specially left indefinite in order to give elasticity to its makeup.

Committees Arranged

No matter how many members each nation will have on the committee, there will be only one vote for each nation so nothing will be effected by it except by unanimous vote.

The first public session of the conference revealed that there are still wide differences of opinion, but all present expressed optimism at its conclusion that an agreement was in sight on the basis of the proposal which will allow a limited percentage of transfer of craft of the smaller categories.

Premier Ramsay MacDonald with ultra optimism, expressed his views of the progress made to correspondents as follows:

"I think we are now within measurable distance of solving the problem which up to now has not been solvable. Mind, I do not say that we are agreed as yet, but I think this committee will report agreement."

The differences between us are so small that were you to put a candle to them you would see

Representatives of the Kiwanis club and Salem Better Business bureau attended the meeting.

At tonight's service tickets will be Sunday afternoon.

Rescue Workers Free Diver From Depths Of River; Was Under Water Since Monday

QUEBEC, Que., Jan. 30.—Peter Trans, diver who was imprisoned for 69 hours in the icy waters of the river at Riviere Aux Outardes, is dead, according to word which was received here today.

His lifeless body, torn and bruised with one leg smashed from being battered by the raging river against the cribbing in which he was held captive—was brought to the surface today.

Montreal, Jan. 30.—Peter Trans, deep sea diver who for 69 hours was trapped at the bottom of the Outarde river in an isolated section 175 miles from Quebec, was brought to the surface at 7:30 this morning, according to word reaching here today.

Whether Trans was dead or alive could not be immediately determined. A doctor began an examination of him at once.

Word that Trans had been brought to the surface was received at 9:20 this morning by Harold Nelson, manager of the Ontario paper company, employers of Trans. The information came in a telegram over the lone telegraph wire which has been in operation at brief intervals to Point Outarde, near the scene. Trans had submerged at 10:30 a.

Clock Monday. His diving apparatus became entangled and he was unable to come up.

Rescue divers had worked all night in the chilled waters of the river in desperate attempts to bring the imprisoned man to the surface. The divers had been rushed by airplane to the scene.

Trans is 38 years old, a native of Jutland. He came to Canada in 1928, leaving behind a wife and two sons, Elgel and Peter.

For the last 24 hours Mrs. Trans was being advised by cable of the progress of the rescue work.

Just before Trans submerged for the last time at 10:30 Monday morning he had come to the surface and asked that his ladder be moved. A few minutes later he reported his work was going well. And then—suddenly—his signals ceased.

The body of Trans was raised through a pocket in the crib under which Trans had been tightly lodged for practically three days and nights.

Although the telegram did not give the result of the doctor's examination Nelson expressed the opinion that Trans was brought up dead.

The belief was held that it would be a miracle if the diver, imprisoned so long in the icy waters, was still alive. Efforts were made immediately to obtain more information from the scene.

Report Good

JOHN P. NEILL, since he was placed in charge of the Columbiana County Home six years ago, has annually reduced the net cost of operation of the institution.

The county home farm of over 400 acres and of which nearly 250 are under cultivation and in pasture showed a return to the county during 1929, according to the annual report of the institution just filed with the county commissioners of approximately $10,000 or nearly $2000 more than was returned the county during the fiscal year of 1928.

Because of the increased return to the county from the county farm last year, the net cost per capita of inmates was reduced over $5 per person.

DEATH CLAIMS NOTED LEADER OF M. E. CHURCH

Bishop Charles Anderson
Passed Away In Home
After Attack

Chicago, Jan. 30.—Bishop Charles P. Anderson, primate of the Episcopal church in the United States, died here today following a heart attack several days ago.

Bishop Anderson was stricken on Jan. 21, and had been confined to his bed since. For the past decade he had been hailed as one of the greatest preachers in America and one of the outstanding figures in his church in which he was elected presiding bishop last November.

Bishop Anderson was born in Kempsville, Canada, Sept. 8, 1864 and was educated at Trinity school, Port Hope, Ontario, and Trinity university, Toronto where he received his degree of doctor of divinity in 1906.

He married Miss Janet Glass of Belleville, Ont., in 1889. In 1887 he was made a deacon and the following year a rector. He was consecrated bishop of Chicago in 1909.

The bishop had been in delicate health since a year ago when a physician ordered him to Florida for a rest.

Evidence of his success in church circles is seen in the construction of more than 50 new churches and 50 rectories in Chicago.

Throughout his life Bishop Anderson was a strong opponent in bringing politics into the church. He denounced the dual standard of morality and strove constantly for world peace and unity of the church.

He is survived by his widow and four daughters.

Over Five Square Miles Added To Total Salem Area

Action Completed In Time to Permit Increase in Population To Be Listed In New Census; First In Fifty Years

Corporation limits of the city of Salem were extended to include 523 square miles in territory lying adjacent to present limits of the municipality through action taken by the Columbiana county board of commissioners at an adjourned meeting at Lisbon, Wednesday afternoon.

The resolution for the extension was placed on file in the office of the city auditor immediately after commissioners approved the project and will not become effective until about April 1, the expiration of the 60-day period as stipulated by the general code of Ohio.

Approval of the extension of the city limits was made by the commissioners following a two-weeks' study of the project during which a public hearing was held in the county seat. The territory annexed to the city includes built-up sections which are located in territory located short distances outside of present limits.

The commissioners acted on the project Wednesday after the city's representatives in the is had made a request for hurried action in order to make the annexation effective by April. Because of final action being taken yesterday, the city will be given benefit of the increase in population that will result from the annexation as under federal statutes, all census figures are based on population as on April 1.

First Extension For 50 Years

It will be the first time in more than 50 years that Salem's limits will have been extended. The city's representatives in the matter petitioned only for the cutting districts which have been built up to a considerable extent, claiming that these areas represented part of the municipality's natural growth. City Solicitor Cecil K. Scott and Atty. L. P. Metzger acted as counsel for the city.

The extension of corporate limits is the second step taken by the city in expansion of its territories, the city board of education having approved a resolution providing for annexation of the Perry township school districts to the Salem districts at a special meeting Monday night. This annexation does not become effective until April 1.

Lawrence Dull Must Pay
Supreme Penalty In Shooting of Man

Tiffin, O., Jan. 30.—Lawrence Dull, 24-year-old Tiffin bandit, will die in the electric chair at Ohio State penitentiary for the slaying of Roy Tish, gasoline station attendant, during an attempted robbery at Fostoria last November.

The youth was found guilty in the first-degree by a jury late yesterday in common pleas court here. No offer of a recommendation for mercy was given. The jury was out only four hours.

Dull was unmoved when he heard the verdict that he must die in the electric chair.

It is alleged, Brown was wounded in the gunbattle and is recovering in hospital here.

Brown will be arraigned on the same charge as soon as he is released from the hospital. He testified at Dull's trial last Tuesday and laid all blame for the killing on Dull.

CITY EXTENSION

For several years Salem has watched the building up of the territory adjacent to its corporate limits. It was the natural expansion of a slowly but steadily progressing community. Never since Salem was incorporated had there been the slightest change in its territorial limits. In practically every direction little communities were springing up, all of them component parts of the city which offered them protection and provided them their livelihood, but all just without the jurisdiction of that municipality.

Many there were who thought such a condition should not go on forever. Here and there, all over Ohio and all over the country, cities large and small were facing the same problem, and most of them meeting it. City extension had been discussed in Salem for several years without a determined effort to acquire it. Within the last few months the demand grew and aggressive leadership guided the issue through the proper channels until it reached a public hearing before the county commissioners.

Today Salem has been granted all that it sought—the built-up portions of Perry township adjoining the old city limits. The commissioners believed Salem wanted only that which properly belonged to it. Records gathered in the county auditor's office and presented at the public hearing convinced them that the township would not suffer from loss of revenue and, furthermore, that the people of the township would benefit from reduction of their tax rate.

Those who will be brought into the city by this expansion will pay less in taxes for the township rate is higher than the city rate. They will benefit by a cheaper rate for electric current. In due time they will have adequate sewage and water facilities and other municipal improvements as they are required or sought.

Viewed from any angle, it is a progressive movement that has been consummated by action of the county commissioners. The aggressive spirit shown by those who sponsored the extension augurs well for the future of the community. It should lead to other much desired and long neglected civic improvements. It was not a grasping, domineering movement. It has not rebuffed the township, but it has lifted a great financial burden from that territory from which it has been unable to escape without help from the city.

The determining factor in the city extension petition was the action of Salem's board of education in extending its jurisdiction to include all of the Perry township school district. The commissioners recognized the fairness of the city's claim, but before granting it they were determined to have the school burden lifted from the shoulders of the township residents.

With figures to show that both the city and the township would benefit financially through the expansion of the city school district, they felt it their duty to both township and city to insist upon the change in school jurisdiction. In that contention they were upheld by township residents, 87 percent of whom had petitioned that the city take over their schools. Likewise they were upheld by every one in the city who took the time to analyze the situation.

The township's plight has been occasioned by the payment of thousands of dollars annually for the tuition of its children in the city schools. That tuition fund drained the township school resources to the point where the township board could not adequately provide for the 200 children attending the four township grade schools.

By taking over these schools, the city will not lose one penny of its tuition fund. That money will come back to it in direct taxes, to be budgeted as are other tax funds for general school purposes. The city also will get what has remained in

The Stars Say—

For Friday, January 31

The astral forces for this day seem to give a degree of liveliness and initiative in old channels of effort rather than in the direction of new projects, which seem to be under a fairly heavy influence.

This may carry a subtle force of underhand antagonism, of sinister stratagem or intrigue, making precaution and general weariness obligatory if those new ventures are to succeed. Be cautious with large corporations and secret societies.

Those whose birthday it is may have a fairly lively and eventful year, but their new ventures have some hazards of duplicity, fraud or misrepresentation. There is a prevalence of intrigue or subtlety calling for general alertness and precaution, especially in negotiations with large corporations or in secret deals. A child born on this day should be lively, resourceful and enterprising, but may lean toward strategy and secret methods in attaining its ends.

Medal Lost In '65

Found In Farmyard

Rushville, Ind., Jan. 30.—R. W. Dawson, farmer living near here, has found a large, gold-plated medal, supposed to have been imbedded in the ground of his barnyard since 1865.

After cleaning the medal, it was found to bear the name of Will Arnold, Ann Arbor, on one side and the date 1855 on the other. Apparently it was a scholastic honor.

In 1865 Dr. John Arnold, father of Will Arnold, was called to the bedside of Mrs. Dawson's grandmother. It was thought the medal was lost then.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

FORM RIGHT HABITS

"Character is simply habit, long continued," said Pythagoras, that wise philosopher of the ancient Greeks. There is no doubt but he was right.

Our daily habits have much to do in moulding character.

You cannot go far in this world without a good character. To this end it is essential that we form good habits in our earliest youth.

Every parent is responsible for the habits acquired by the child.

It may take vigilance but it is far better to see that your child forms good habits than to permit bad habits which will curdle his future.

There are plenty of habits formed in youth that are a menace to future good health. Chief of these are the habits of eating

Some persons have digestive organs which seem capable of handling almost anything that falls short of rocks and hardware. They appear to be able to eat anything and suffer no ill effects.

I consider it unwise to treat any stomach, no matter how willing it may be, to such hardships. Children are apt to bolt their food, to be notational about what they eat, and to refuse to eat what is good for them.

If you are guardian to such a child, you must be firm in helping him to form right habits of eating.

It is important to prevent a child from forming a habit of eating too much sugar, or too much salt, or too much meat, or too much of anything. He must have a balanced diet, and the more variety of food he takes the better.

Eternal vigilance must be yours in this habit-forming stage of his career.

We all discover, some time, that some one thing is bad for us. Perhaps we have formed a great liking for pork, pastry, candy, or one of a hundred different things. We may find that something does not agree with us, something perhaps that has stood us in good stead for years past. Now is the time that we can give evidence of real character by changing our eating habits. We find that we feel better, and are better, by reducing the consumption of whatever has been determined upon as destructive to our welfare.

There can be no doubt that certain foodstuffs are poisonous to some people. There is no use trying to overcome the effects. You just have to eliminate all or part of such a food. Tobacco and alcohol are in the same category. If one of them does you harm, and produces ill effects in your body and brain, you just cannot afford to indulge in it.

Form good sleeping habits. Most people need eight hours of good sleep every night in the week, day in and day out. Some get along on five, but the chances are that the person who does not get enough sleep will lessen his body resistance to disease. It is something to think about.

Is it your good habit to take a vigorous walk each day, if you are not exercising your body, some other way? That is also most essential to your health.

REPUBLICANS IN INITIAL INROAD ON RE-ELECTION

Cooper, McCulloch State Views In Meeting At Cleveland Club

Cleveland, Jan. 30.—The first inroad for their campaign for re-election had been laid here today by Governor Myers V. Cooper and Senator Roscoe McCulloch following their appearance in Cleveland last night at the 27th annual McKinley Day banquet at the Tippecanoe club.

The governor and Senator McCulloch indicated their approval of each other as running mates in the forthcoming elections and their expectations of re-election and the support of Cleveland's constituents.

Political observers found in the tone of Governor Cooper's speech an indication that he will seek re-election as the record of his administration, McCulloch hailed the state's chief executive as "one of the greatest governors in the history of our state."

Governor Cooper devoted a considerable portion of his address to the accomplishments of his administration, mentioning that in his term, steps had been taken toward remedying the lack of facilities for caring for the feeble-minded by starting work on the Apple Creek institution.

He declared also that the general complaint as to tardiness in affording relief to workers has been met with efficiency and promptness.

Senator McCulloch, after eulogizing the late Senator Burton, whom he succeeded in the senate, dwelt on the proposed tariff bill and condemned the senate coalition between insurgent Republicans and southern Democrats.

One of the guests of honor at the banquet last night was Senator Charles Dick of Akron who was an intimate friend of the late President McKinley.

Chinese Celebrate 19th New Years Day

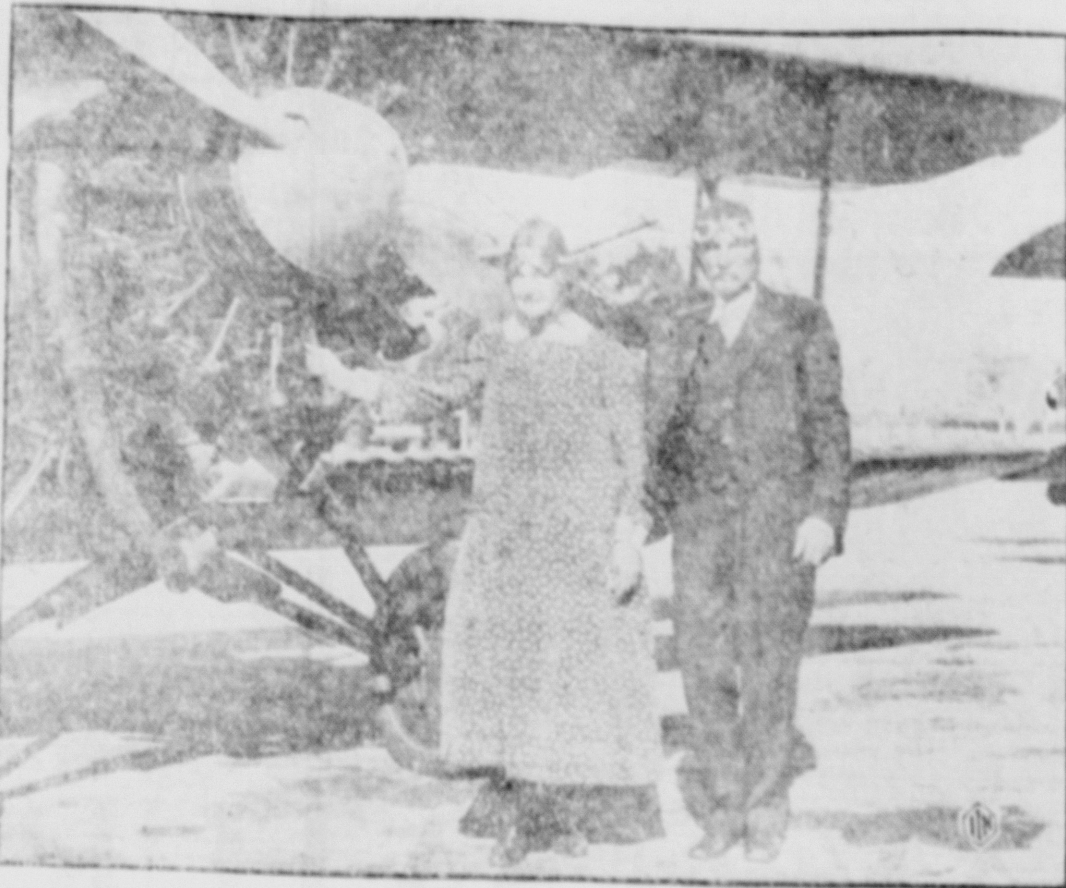

Cleveland, Jan. 30.—Happy New Year!

In Cleveland's Chinatown that's the greeting today, probably not in the same words but in words that mean the same thing.

The Chinese New Year began today. It is the year 19—signifying the 19th anniversary of the establishment of the Chinese republic.

For several days celebration of the event has been under way with feasting and festivities. Today, however, climaxes the jubilee.

Give Us Old Covered Wagon!

These 82-year-old twins, Mrs. E. J. Sparks and J. S. Sifton, of Los Angeles, recently made their first airplane excursion at Clover Field, Santa Monica, and astonished their friends when they returned by calmly announcing that they had not found the experience nearly as exciting as they had expected. In fact, they said they had found crossing the western plains from Illinois to California in a covered wagon much more thrilling.

BOMBERS WRECK LARGE BUILDING

$100,000 Damages Result From Fifth Blast In 24 Hours

Chicago, Jan. 30.—Police today took emergency measures in their drive to end the activities of a "bomb trust" after the fifth blast in 24 hours last night rocked a large portion of the north side and laid an entire building in ruins.

Ten persons were injured in the latest depredation of the terrorist gang which has brought destruction in fire widely separated business and residential districts.

So powerful was last night's explosion that the one-story brick and frame building was lifted several feet into the air and then dropped, the entire structure, witnesses said. The building was occupied by J. Culotta & Co., wholesale grocers. No one was in it when the bomb exploded.

George Blanton and William Petrakos were cut by flying dishes and bits of fruit which were hurled from the shelves of Blanton's restaurant across the street by the blast.

Damage was estimated at $100,000.

AERIAL SEARCH FOLLOWS REPORT

Sheriff Cruises Erie Waters In Hopes Of Locating Run Boat, But Fails

Sandusky, O., Jan. 30.—After an unsuccessful 2-hour search by an airplane for a derelict run craft carrying the frozen body of a man which was reported found Tuesday in the ice wastes off the western tip of Pelee Island, authorities today were attempting to check the origin of the run boat.

Sheriff John W. Parker personally conducted the airplane search for the craft yesterday. Accompanied by P. J. Joe Koch, Sheriff Parker flew over Canadian Lake Erie ice with a radius of 20 miles of Pelee Island, but found neither a derelict launch nor traces of where such a craft had been removed.

"We absolutely failed to verify the rumors," the sheriff declared.

Upon receipt of the rumor it was believed that the reported derelict craft could possibly be that of the Gray Ghost, a notorious run launch which cleared from Erieau, Ont., last Jan. 9 with 160 cases of liquor and mysteriously disappeared.

Here's Attack On America's Blondes

Boston, Jan. 30.—That 50 per cent of the blondes in circulation are artificially bleached, was what Anne Behne, director of the Wilted academy told members of the Ladies Hairdressers association of New England in convention here.

It is now possible for anybody to have light hair and look natural despite any handicap Nature might put in the way as long as she has hair, Mr. Behne said.

The demand for red hair has died out, continued Mr. Behne, and hairdressers now have few calls for the brassy brown effects of a few years ago.

TOWBOAT SINKS IN OHIO RIVER

Fire Rages On Vessel to Endanger Others At Port; Flaming Torch Set Adrift

Point Pleasant, W. Va., Jan. 30.—The towboat Clyde which has been plying between Pittsburgh and Memphis has in "Davy Jones' locker" in the Ohio river today after a fire which virtually destroyed the craft last night.

The blaze of an unknown origin swept through the superstructure of the Clyde so rapidly that it was thought that other river craft might be endangered. The mooring lines of the burning vessel parted, however, and allowed it to drift down the river near Gallipolis where it sunk.

Damage was estimated at $80,000.

The issue provided additional impetus for the extension of the city's corporation limits as commissioners withheld final action on the latter matter until the school board acted on the extension of the school districts. Each issue became a matter of record as a result of unanimous action by both the school board and commissioners.

The resolution adopted by the commissioners follows:

"The Commissioners of the County of Columbiana, State of Ohio, preceding this day to hear the amended petition of the council of the City of Salem, Ohio, to obtain the annexation of the territory in their amended petition described, to the City of Salem, and having in open meeting heard all the persons desiring to be heard for or against the granting of said amended petition, and considered the affidavits and petitions presented with reference thereto, and being fully advised, find that said petition contains all the matters required by law.

"That its statements are true, that the territory sought to be annexed is adjacent to the said City of Salem;

"That the map or plat of said territory attached to the amended petition is accurate.

"That the ordinance of the City of Salem was duly passed by the council of the City of Salem, Ohio, and that Cecil K. Scott, as City Solicitor of the City of Salem, Ohio, was duly authorized by said ordinance, so passed as aforesaid, to prepare and file the petition and amended petition with the commissioners of the County of Columbiana, State of Ohio;

"That the required legal notice of the amended petition has been given and that it is right and proper that said amended petition should be granted.

"It is hereby ordered that the prayer of said amended petition be granted, and that the territory described in said amended petition may be annexed to the City of Salem, Ohio, in accordance with law, and that a certified transcript, signed by a majority of this Board of all the orders and proceedings of this Board relative to said petition and said amended petition and the hearing thereon, together with said petition, amended petition and map of plat attached thereto, and all the papers on file relating to said matter be deposited at once with the Auditor of the said City of Salem, Ohio."

VICTIM VIOLATES GANGLAND'S CODE

Man Shot By Trio Tells Who Assaults Are; Will Not Live

Chicago, Jan. 30.—Gangland's code of silence was violated for the first time in the history of Chicago crime today when Johnny Genaro, gunman and hoodlum, in a dying gasp named James DeCastro, indicted bomber and racketeer, as the man who "put him on the spot" here last night.

Genaro also named Louis De Luca and Angelo Luciani as the two men who riddled his body with bullets.

Genaro, after the shooting, staggered to a hospital and collapsed. Physicians gave him only a few hours to live.

Heretofore, the code of gangland called for no one to ever name an attacker. This code baffled police in their attempts to solve hundreds of gang murders.

One police official said today: "It is better that Genaro dies; by naming his slayers he sealed his death warrant."

NAVAL PARITY

Global Tonnage Out

MacDonald emphasized, however, that Great Britain could not accept the global tonnage theory as now presented, saying:

"Under it you would never get peace, quiet or contentment. There would be continued competition within categories."

Thus after a fortnight of private negotiations, the conference can only be said to be just starting on its real work.

The only note which displayed the slightest bit of discordance at today's session was the insistence of Foreign Minister Grandi that the primary duty of the conference was to determine first the ratios assigned to each power and then their total tonnage and his service of notice that Italy reserved the right not to agree to anything until there has been a decision on this point.

This was not considered as serious as the whole tenor of the session was conciliatory.

It was left to the American delegates to produce the oil of compromise in the global tonnage versus categories controversy. Secretary of State Stimson took the initiative in making a resolution referring the controversy to the committee and Ambassador Gibson made the most conciliatory speech of the session.

In the first real conflict at the conference, America stood in a neutral position while urging a spirit of compromise.

Ambassador Gibson's frank statement that the United States favored categorical limitation but would not force its views down the throats of other countries was received with the warmest praise by all.

The next plenary session will be held when the committee makes sufficient progress to justify such a session.

Toledo, O., Jan. 30.—Two bandits who are wanted by police in connection with two robberies of the Stony Ridge Ohio bank, had been identified by police here today.

One of the men was recently convicted of robbing the Vanier bank. He is Arthur Burkhardt, who was found guilty at a jury trial last week at Findlay. Arthur Fleming, Burkhardt's convicted accomplice in the Vanier bank robbery, was taken to the Ohio state penitentiary at Columbus today. Both men were given sentences of 25 years.

The other identified robber is Phil Lee, alias Phil Bryant, who was recently arrested at Corbin, Ky., when he appeared at a hospital there for treatment for a gunshot wound in his back. Sheriff White of Wood county, and Thomas Schaeffer, of the Ohio Bankers' association, said that he had been positively identified in both holdups of the Stony Ridge bank, one about a month ago and the other two weeks later.

It is believed that Lee was wounded in the last holdup of the Stony Ridge bank when Cashier Clarence Menter fired after the fleeing bandits. Menter was wounded in the foot.

"GUN FIEND" IS FACING CHARGE

Police Investigate To Find If Gun Used by Masher Was Used In Blood Death

Cleveland, Jan. 30.—Edward W. Ralph, 18, confessed "gun fiend," who admitted the shooting of two young women here last month, was to be arraigned in police court today on a charge of shooting with intent to kill.

The youth confessed, according to police, that he shot Miss Beatrice Rice Gallagher and Mrs. Mary Pishock after they had repulsed his advances when accosted on the street. Ralph persistently denies, however, that he was the "masher" who shot and fatally wounded Miss Janet Blood, 16-year-old high school student.

The gun used by Ralph in his attacks was found yesterday and ballistic experts were to compare photographs of test bullets fired from the pistol with those taken from the two victims' bodies. Bullets extracted from Mrs. Blood's body will also be compared to determine whether or not Ralph was the murderer of the high school student.

that the national banking laws be liberalized to permit further extension of branch banking by national banks, many militant members of congress have announced that they in turn will seek repeal of the McFadden act which permitted limited banking.

Congress has already been warned by treasury officials that unless the national bank laws are liberalized, the banking resources of the country will soon be prohibited in chains formed to evade laws.

A clear skin is irresistible!

You can feel the rejuvenating effect SSS brings the body by the increase of red blood cells.

A clear, smooth, lovely skin enhances personal attractiveness. Men admire it. Women prize and secretly envy. More happiness and friends may depend upon it.

YOUR popularity may depend upon a clear, smooth, lovely skin. It is the accepted way of telling the degree of health a person possesses. Naturally a skin which bespeaks health attracts.

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of skin blemishes, lack of appetite, flabby flesh and loss of energy as an indication that the body's power of resistance is low—that there is a deficiency of red-blood-cells.

The way to the skin is through the blood. Strong, healthy blood nourishes the body and promotes smooth, clear skin.

Many thousands have regained their strength and charm by taking S.S.S. It is Nature's own blood tonic for raising the body's power of resistance to infection and disease, improving the appetite, building firm flesh and clearing the skin.

S.S.S. promotes healthy body building. It increases the number of red-blood-cells. It is made from strictly fresh vegetable drugs and has a successful record of over 100 years back of it.

All good drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

NEWS AND PROGRAMS

EAGLES ON AIR

Members of Quaker City Aerie, No. 216, Fraternal Order of Eagles, of Salem, were notified at their regular meeting Tuesday evening at P. O. E. hall that the state Aerie of Eagles is now broadcasting weekly radio programs from station WAU, Columbus. The programs go on the air each Wednesday, from 7:30 p. m. to 8 p. m. Secretary H. W. Pealy announced.

The program of broadcasts was inaugurated Jan. 15. President J. W. Hundertmark of the local aerie was notified each week until March 19. They consist of music and plays, all specially arranged by the lodge.

The broadcasts were arranged as part of a membership campaign now being waged for 25,000 new members of the Eagles in Ohio in 1936 to retain first rank among the states of the union for the Buckeye state in Eagle membership.

LECTURE SERIES

A weekly series of lectures will be started under the auspices of the National Democratic club that will be broadcast over one of the most extensive regular hookups of New York transmitters ever attempted, starting Saturday. Key stations in the program will include both NBC networks and the Columbia chain. No definite hour has been set for the broadcast.

Dr. Shirley Wynne, New York health commissioner, will talk on "Guarding the Health of New York" this Saturday and on next Saturday the noted psychiatrist, Dr. Bernard Gluck will talk on "The Science of Human Conduct." Mrs. Maxwell Hall Elliot will discuss a matter interesting to women on Feb. 13 and Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt will speak on March 1.

NEW ENSEMBLE

Dale Wimbrow of the CBS artist staff, is organizing a new seven-piece accordion ensemble that will be introduced via network features soon. The La Palma period will be the first to feature the unique set-up.

"CHEERIO" FEATURE

All efforts of the National Broadcasting company to keep secret the identity of "Cheerio" who is heard over the WEAF network at 8:30 a. m. each day, have failed. "Cheerio" is so intent on keeping his identity a secret that persons are not admitted to the studio during his broadcast. Don't tell anyone but in real life he is Charles Field, noted entertainer.

HOCKEY GAME BROADCAST

The International hockey match between Americans and Detroit will be transmitted to radio listeners over WMCA at 10 tonight. The RCA Victor hour is scheduled over WEAF's network at the same time. WABC broadcasts the National Radio Forum at 10:30. Bamberger's Little Symphony comes from WOR at 8.

TODAY'S FEATURES

First movements of Tchaikovsky's Concerto will be featured by the famous violinist, Misha Elman, guest artist of the RCA-Victor broadcast at 10... A sparkling personality from the talking screen, the one and only Lily Damita, and Phil Cook noted comedian, will be guest artist on the Fleischman broadcast at 8. Rudy Vallee and his Connecticut Yankees are also on the program as usual.

SEIBERLING SINGERS

The Seiberling Singers will offer another of their pleasing programs over the WEAF relay at 9. James Melton and Lewis James, tenors; Elliot Shaw, baritone, and Wilfred Glenn, bass, compose the quartet, declared by leading musical authorities throughout the musical realm, as the greatest quartet in existence. The Seiberling group also sings in the Palmolive Hour every Wednesday as the Palmolive Revelers.

LAST NIGHT RECEPTION

Salem radio fans found it difficult to tear themselves away from the loud speaker in favor of slumber last night, the reception being by far one of the best all winter. The usual strong stations came in stronger than ever and weaker ones came in clearly. Some of the better-wired stations listed were KVOO, KFLD, WLAC, WFIW, KMBC, WJAX, KMD, KFAP and many others. Easiest stations came in clear. WEEL, WTIC and WJZZ leading the list of the weaker ones while WGOY and WABC are still among the best. WSM came in extremely loud but WJAX and WFLA, Florida stations, were noisy.

FOOTBALL BROADCAST

The famous Carlisle Army game of 1912 will be revived by eternal waves when broadcast by Clifton Sparks at 8:30 with Philip Clifton telling the story. Jim Thorpe, well known in Salem, is the hero of the tale.

ENRAGED PASTOR USES REVOLVER

Church Janitor, Wife Shot
By Man Who Turns
Gun On Self

Mendota, Ill., Jan. 30.—Gossiping among his flock were blamed today for an argument last night which ended when Rev. J. A. Wilson shot his church janitor and the janitor's wife according to police, and then turned the gun on himself.

All three were taken to the hospital with serious wounds.

Rev. Wilson, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, went to the home of his janitor, Amos Elliott, and demanded a letter which he said caused the gossip according to police.

The letter was understood to have been written by the minister to a widow who is a member of the church. Although the letter itself was innocent, Wilson thought Elliott was using it to defame him.

Elliott surrendered the letter then attempted to take it back by force, according to police. Drawing a revolver, Wilson shot his janitor below the heart and turned the gun on Mrs. Elliott, wounding her in the chest, according to authorities.

The minister then hurried home and tried to commit suicide. He fired five shots at his head, three of them grazing his scalp and the other two penetrating the skull.

Columbus Selected As Site For Executive Headquarters
Of T. A. T. Lines

Columbus, O., Jan. 30.—Ohio's capital may be the aviation center of the central states, it was indicated today following an announcement of T. A. T.-Maddux air lines officials that the company's headquarters will be moved to Columbus.

The Eastern division's operation offices have consolidated and the move will be effective Saturday, the officials announced. The traffic offices of the eastern division will remain at St. Louis, under the direction of J. W. Brennan, it was stated.

St. Clair D. Welsh, former eastern division superintendent, will be in charge of the offices here to succeed John A. Collins, who recently announced his resignation.

The change will be made as an economy measure as a result of the recent reductions in fares on the passenger air line, it was said.

The action was decided upon at a meeting of the board of directors when J. L. Maddux, organizer and president of the Maddux lines, was elected to head the T. A. T.-Maddux line merger.

For COLDS

We all catch colds and they can make us miserable; but yours needn't last long if you will do this. Take two or three tablets of Bayer Aspirin just as soon as possible after a cold starts. Stay in the house if you can—keep warm. Repeat with another tablet or two of Bayer Aspirin every three or four hours, if those symptoms of cold persist. Take a good laxative when you retire, and keep bowels open. If throat is sore, dissolve three tablets in a quarter-glassful of water and gargle. This soothes inflammation and reduces infection. Health Of Students Forms Topic For New Research

New Haven, Jan. 30.—Additional safeguards for the health of the Yale students are being considered at the university campus, with a health department building in the heart of the great school plant here. A vast four-story building, corresponding in architecture to the new Gothic structure opening up in the Yale zone will be ready for service in October of 1936, according to present plans.

Explaining the vast building for the student university authorities will be provided and that the main basement will contain complete X-ray equipment including fluoroscopic and dark room, a physical therapy suite, with apparatus for light and heat treatment, a sterilization room, and an isolation room for examination of contagious cases.

Recent plans show

The main floor is to have a reception room, general offices, record room, small reception room, a women's suite with separate washroom, waiting room, and two treatment rooms.

For the second floor and planned the ear nose and throat department, eye department, two surgical rooms and three medical treatment rooms, with a waiting room.

On the third floor will be a central lobby leading to two-five room suites for dental examination and for the dental hygiene department, beside a three room suite for the dental hygiene department, a laboratory, and a sanitary inspection room.

On the fourth floor will be the suite of the resident physician, consultation rooms and offices for the medical staff and for the medical director. Vaulting permanent records go into the attic.

The new quarters simply align the health department in with the university's care, considerably and more efficiently in the Yale campus on the building. The medical department is now quartered in the Sterling Medical school, a suite every and other departments have been housed in wooden dwellings purchased for the purpose and now removed for the new structure.

The building itself is planned to form a forum in the new campus plan some day will run across from the Sterling library to College street, a development now regarded as "the Pope cross-street plan."

All the buildings along the proposed cross-campus will be of "Neo-Gothic" style, the W. L. Harrison recreation building being the only one in complete use today.

Evening's north and or breakfast hall including Lampson hall will either be raised or moved north to "Yale" and all reconstructed to fit the new five architects have shown an paper.

Believe It or Not, Bean Is Vegetable

Sarasota, Jan. 30.—Here is a "Believe it or not" which commanded attention of Gov. Young's cabinet, recently.

A bean is a fruit, not a vegetable.

The explanation came when C. H. Hecke, state director of agriculture, was asked, at a session of the governor's council, if the Mediterranean fruit fly attacks vegetables as well as fruits.

"Yes, it eats beans, but a bean is a fruit, not a vegetable," explained Hecke.

Gov. Young and cabinet heads registered unrestrained surprise.

After giving three cheers for their professors and a few "fraternities" for the executive authorities the student body went on a strike.

She is the only woman harbor-master in Great Britain.

Famous Old Broadway Theater To Be Replaced By Skyscraper

New York, Jan. 20.—The famous old Knickerbocker theater, landmark of the days when the theater was the theater, went down like an old trouper. It was located at 10th st. and Broadway.

It's epitaph might read: "A skyscraper got me—net the talkies."

True to its caste until the finish, it harbored the voices of legitimate actors in rehearsal until just before the wrecking crew descended upon its hoary memories.

Henry Irving and Ellen Terry baptized the theater in "Becket" way back in '93. It was called Abbey's theater then.

Sarah Bernhardt, Anna Held, Maude Adams, Lillian Russell, Julia Marlowe, David Warfield, Mrs. Fiske, Southern, Beerbohm Tree and William Gillette, the great ones of a past generation, walked across the Knickerbocker stage.

And add Maxine Elliott, Julia

Ohio Winter . . .

. . . and it's mighty tough on motor oil . . .

But never in winters past have you had a motor oil made especially to meet these swirling weather changes . . .

New SOHIO MOTOR OIL

free from harmful wax

MONDAY's cold—Tuesday's not—Wednesday's chilly—Thursday's hot! And so it goes right through the winter. No wonder ordinary motor oils find life difficult in Ohio. No wonder New Sohio Motor Oil has gained such success during its first season. It was developed especially to meet Ohio's punishing weather changes.

New Sohio doesn't grow sluggish when the weather grows cold—doesn't lose its body when the thermometer rises. Cold motors spin easily and under intense heat at high speeds there's no breaking of that vital protecting film between moving parts.

This unusual flexibility and sturdiness has been given New Sohio Motor Oil by a newly developed refining process which frees it from harmful wax to a degree never before thought possible. First it is chilled to 50° below zero. Then the harmful wax content is whirled away. The result: an oilier oil—smoother—longer lasting—ready to meet Ohio's severest weather changes better than they've ever been met before.

Yet with all its extra quality New Sohio Motor Oil costs only 30c per quart.

Listen to the Sohios every Tuesday Evening at 7:30 P. M. . . WTAM

"LOVE COMES ALONG"At The Grand
Caparaja, land of love and intrigue, where vengeance is meted out with startling swiftness, and a song in the darkness has the power to retrieve romance.

Such is "Love Comes Along" coming attraction at the Grand theatre, which is Bebe Daniels' second starring picture.

Bebe sings four new song hits, including "Love Comes Along" and "Night Winds" written especially for the picture by Oscar Levant and Sidney Clare. She also proves her ability as an instrumentalist by accompanying herself on the guitar.

Miss Daniels is cast as a member of a show troupe which has been stranded at a remote port. She meets a swaggering young sailor from a tramp schooner, and a most intriguing love affair results. Jealousy, however, causes an estrangement between the two. The manner in which their love is revived forms the high point of an unusually beautiful romance.

"HOLLYWOOD REVUE"At The State

"The Hollywood Revue" Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's big musical motion picture spectacle which is, in reality, the screen's first revue, will have its final showing at the State tonight.

In the cast of "The Hollywood Revue" are most of the prominent players at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio. Marion Davies, John Gilbert, Norma Shearer, William Haines, Joan Crawford, Lionel Barrymore, Buster Keaton, Karl Dane, George K. Arthur, Marie Dressler, Conrad Nagel, Gus Edwards, Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy and Green Lee all appear in the new picture, in addition to the trio featured in "The Broadway Melody"—Anita Page, Charles King and Bebie Love.

Their talents are supplemented by such stage luminaries as the Brox Sisters, Natacha Natova, Cliff Edwards (Ukelele Ike), Jack Benny, the Rounders and the Albertina Hatch ballet.

Hollywood, Jan. 22 — There are hectic sessions ahead for the film stars. When color photography becomes universal among the movie makers. The players will face the possibility of having to change the color of their hair for each picture they make.

Frank Fay is the first casualty. Playing the lead in "Under a Texas Moon," Fay dyed his red hair black. Then he had to have the color taken out so he could display his own carrot top as master of ceremonies in another picture. No sooner was that done than he was called back for an added scene in the Texas picture, involving another change of color to black.

Now Frank's hair doesn't know what to think. It is said to be turning grey.

It's nice to be a blonde, but nicer, to have a brunette personality to go with it. So says Natalie Moorhead, one of the film center's most stunning blondes. Natalie believes she has a brunette personality, even though her hair is pale gold.

"My one aversion to being a blonde is the fact that blondes are generally associated with insipid personalities. When you think of a brunette beauty, you at once picture a woman with sparkle and wit—vivid personality that stands out in a crowd of people. Blondes are good to look at, but brunettes are interesting to listen to, the common belief has it."

"But I don't agree and I won't be called insipid. Why, when I was a little girl, I never played with dolls. I always played marbles with the boys in our neighborhood and had lots of fist fights."

The little blondes shook her olden locks in indignation at the thought of being called insipid.

Dress to suit your personality. Don't buy clothes just because they look good on others. What appears smart on one person is unsuitable for another.

Norma Talmadge, the film star, approached on the subject of clothes, gives this advice to women. "The average girl could greatly increase her attractiveness by dressing to suit her personality." Miss Talmadge remarked, "It isn't hard to do. Find out what colors you look best in. Dress simply. Simple clothing displays good taste. It is always smart, always correct. If you are uncertain what to wear, then let simplicity be your motto."

Matched microphones, one pitched to high tone frequencies and the other to low, are used to record the duets of the Duncan Sisters. Rosetta is a soprano, and Vivian a contralto, so it was found the best way to register the blended voices was by making two "mikes," hooked up to a single recording apparatus.

These students would be placed as supervisors over other girls in this work on their return. This is one more step in the program of industrial development now being pursued by Egypt.

Why Few Are Fat

Excess fat has been disappearing fast in late years. So fast that excess fat is the exception now. You see that in every circle.

That change is largely due to the discovery that excess fat is the result of a gland weakness. A gland whose secretion helps turn food to fuel. So modern physicians, in treating obesity, seek to combat this cause.

Their method is embodied in Marmole prescription tablets. People have used them for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. Now almost everyone has slender friends to show them the results.

Go do what they did—try Marmole. All druggists supply it at $1 a box, and a book in each box tells you how and why it acts.

Toledo, Ohio — January 22, 1930

Price cuts of $45.00 and $50.00 on all 1930 Whippet four-cylinder models were announced here today by L. A. Miller, president of Willys-Overland Company.

This significant move by Willys-Overland makes "Whippet" the lowest priced of all four-door sedans built in America and is particularly important in indicating the trend toward greater economy benefits to motor car purchasers in the low price range.

This indicates the recognition by leading manufacturers of the fact that economy and thrift will be considered as never before by motor car purchasers this year, and gives a new importance to the four-cylinder car.

NEW WHIPPET PRICES:

Sedan	$585
Sedan Deluxe	$645
Coupe, Two-Passenger	$525
Coupe, Rumble Seat	$555
Roadster, Two Passenger	$475
Roadster, Rumble Seat	$505
Coach	$525
Collegiate Roadster	$545
Touring	$475
Commercial Chassis	$360

The production on Whippet Fours during 1929 was greatly in excess of any previous year, and indications are that 1930 will be another banner year for Willys-Overland on the Whippet Four Line.

East Palestine High Meets Red And Black Here Friday Night

SHARKEY-SCOTT BATTLE TAKES ON IMPORTANT TITULAR ASPECTS

County Engagements Of Importance Scheduled For Both Salem Teams

Class A League Battles At Memorial Gym Billed As Attractions Tonight; Golden Eagle To Meet United Cigars In Opening Tilt

Salem High will be called upon to defend its laurels as basketball champion of Columbiana for the second time this season, this time on the occasion of East Palestine High's invasion of the high school gym here Friday night. Two games, both of vital importance to Red and Black flippers, are scheduled, bringing rivalry combinations of the rival schools into engagements which will have strict bearing on the final result of the county championship race.

These games are billed for tomorrow night and for the present Salem Class A league games as exhibited at the Memorial building gymnasium will serve as the attraction for local cage addicts. Two contests will be played as per usual, the first bringing the first-half championship Golden Eagle team in defense of its undefeated record against the United Cigars while in the second the Art Jewelers oppose the Grate Motors.

Results of games played in the first half are presumed to have little indication of what the outcome of the second half will be. The McIntire Florists, victims of the Electric Furnace in the open score, served as an example of surprise to come when they swamped the latter combine Tuesday night and other sensations will probably come once a week.

Chance For Upset
There is a big chance for an upset to occur in the first Class A game, tonight for the Jewelers, trimmed easily by the champs the first half, boast of an excellent chance of eking out a verdict over McIntire Greenberg's lads. The Jewelers performed well in trimming a much-strengthened Printz Klub team Tuesday night and showed more power than in previous contests so should give the Birds a tough battle. A victory for them is hardly expected however, as the Birds are expected to flash some of the better basketball during the final weeks of league activities.

How the Printz Klub gets away with bolstering its lineup game after game has not been brought to the attention of the league arbitration board as yet and it appears that the matter will not be made a subject for dispute until the colored pads start a winning streak. The precedent that has been established by the team's being permitted to add players without authority is serving as a poor example for other team managers, who, if they are defeated by the Klubmen, are bound to start a rumormongering that will ruin the league season.

The first game, because it brings the Golden Eagle team into action naturally is the most important game of the layout and the Cigars will undoubtedly make an interesting night of it for the champs. A Class B league game will be played as a preliminary at 7 o'clock.

Crucial High School Tilt
The high school battles are expected to attract the biggest crowd of the season to the Red and Black's gym tomorrow night for Palestine is out to trim the Stomenen, a conquest it failed to accomplish last season on the gridiron although it gave the Salem team its worst scare of the season. The Brown and White team on its home floor last Saturday and looked strong. With Salem weaker than in past years and Palestine stronger, an even more interesting game than was played last season between the two schools is anticipated.

Speaking of interesting games between the two schools, one would hardly look forward to a more spectacular battle than that played between Salem and Palestine last year for the Stomenen just barely won out by a two-point margin. Van Hining has this last year's team back this season, almost intact in its veteran lineup, and it won't be a surprise to fans of either city if the verdict goes to the Brown and White representatives.

Just as Salem was fortunate in winning from Palestine in football last season, so was it in basketball, for the Stomenen were outscored in goals from action but tallied nine points to five from the foul-line. The final score was 31-29 and gave Salem its county championship.

Who Stone will start in the game is as usual, a matter of conjecture for he makes it a matter of contest between all members of his varsity squad who deserves starting honors during the entire season. No player is ever certain of a starting berth and with the team failing to function as expected during the present season, changes may be expected in any game.

Girls' Play Prelim
The Salem girls play Brown and White lasses in the preliminary battle at 7:30. Just how much either of these games mean as far as the county feminine flag race is concerned is unknown at present for almost every team involved still has a chance for championship honors. Salem and Liverpool are the only two girls' teams who are considered out of the race in that both have been trimmed twice or more times but they have a chance in future games.

The Red and Black easily defeated Palestine by a 25-14 score last season but Palestine is much stronger this year than at that time, while Salem, just as the boys' team, is weaker this season.

Coach Oelschlaeger is expected to use as her starting lineup, Zelle and Burt at forwards; Lutsch, center forward; Reich center guard and Krepps and either Jones or Ward, guards.

Schmeling Must Fight Winner Or Be Barred From Running Entirely

If German Refuses Championship Will Be Given To Victor of Florida Fight Is Ultimatum Issued By Head of Boxing Commission

By DAVIS J. WALSH

Copyright, 1930 by I. N. S.

New York, Jan. 30.—If Schmeling defaults, the Sharkey-Scott winner at Miami, Fla., on Feb. 27, will be declared the heavyweight champion of the world, per se and without further ado.

William Muldoon, who has established a one-man protectorate over the kingdom of the heavyweights, so declared today in an interview in which he outlined the status of the heavyweight situation for the benefit of the writer.

For the benefit of Max Schmeling, the third person in the championship triangle, he issued the preemptory warning that, if for any reason he failed to meet the Miami winner at an early date, the German would be considered to have defaulted his rights and the championship would ride the decision at Miami.

"Schmeling Missed Chance"

"Schmeling had his chance last summer and wouldn't take it," the dictator added. "We are giving him another chance this summer. If he again shows a disinclination to fight his logical opponent, the Sharkey-Scott winner will be named champion and his name will go on our memorial with those of the nine ex-champions already inscribed upon trophy."

Thus, does the Miami fight take on a significance far beyond even the most rabid surmise of those who sponsored it. But not to William Muldoon. He sees it as one of the great international fights of the ages and, since he alone will decide who is champion, it doesn't appear as though any contrary opinion can be at all vital.

"The greatest fight between big men since the immortal meetings between Tunney and Dempsey," is one way he views the impending unpleasantness down below the Mason and Dixon line.

International Battle
Another way he sees it is as "The first real international championship fight" since the days of the old prize ring when old John C. Heenan went over to fight Tom Sayers.

"Get that name right," he warned. "John C. Heenan. A fine fighter, a thorough gentleman and a highly intelligent man. It isn't a name I want desecrated when I speak of it."

I decided not to desecrate it. Also to make an attempt to break through service by mentioning that the Sullivan-Mitchell, Corbett-Mitchell and Dempsey-Firpo meetings were international championship fights. It seemed that I was wrong. Firpo, for instance, was a South American and, therefore, the real international aspect, as involving the old world against the new, was past. Mitchell, it appeared, just didn't belong.

"He wasn't a fighter of any great importance," said he with just a shade of depreciation. As for Sullivan, whom Muldoon managed, it seemed that old John was the best fighter in the world but hadn't taken the trouble to prove it. The other nations, it appeared, complained querulously that John had not met their best men and therefore couldn't call himself the champion of the world. "And they were right," the old man of boxing declared, regretfully. The best man in each major country must be given his chance before the title of heavyweight champion can be bestowed on anyone. When we are finished with this tournament, no country will be able to rise up and complain that its champion didn't get a hearing. This is the reason I am giving Campolo much consideration at this time.

South America has become a great boxing country on the impetus of Firpo's career and its champion must have the right to prove his ability. Campolo was eliminated from current consideration the night he lost to Scott but the Argentine hasn't forfeited the right to fight his way back in future eliminations.

Sharkey, Scott Quality
"Scott qualified on the strength of that bout. Sharkey has belonged in the championship fight for nearly four years. Schmeling as champion of Germany, likewise has proved his worth and will get his chance in June."

The trophy I created now has nine names on it and has room for many more. By the time, it is filled with names, every man now connected with boxing will be dead. It, therefore, is a real memorial and that is why I wish to be sure that the name that goes on it this summer will reach its place among the immortals without dissatisfaction. To which might be added: Thus be it ever and always.

United Cigars Win
United Cigars defeated the Franklin Furniture of Columbiana, 43-13 at Columbiana Wednesday night.

Waivers Bring Ken Williams to Yanks

New York, Jan. 30.—Babe Ruth, the great hesitator, is still a holdout but the New York Yankees are going to have a man out there who hits home runs.

They have signed Ken Williams, obtaining him from the Boston Red Sox on waivers. Williams, a veteran of 37, but as a matter of fact only eight months' older than the Bambino, starred a few seasons back as a home run artist for the St. Louis Browns.

Ray Conger Loses To Phil Edwards

New York, Jan. 30.—Phil Edwards flying feet today had written a thrilling finish to his career at New York University.

Running his last race in the colors of the Violet last night in the St. Joseph's Catholic club games in the Newark armory, the negro star dominated Ray Conger, Iowa State dope-bucket-upsetter, and won the 1,000 yard event.

He covered the distance in 14 4-5, a new army track record. Jack Elder, the Notre Dame football ace, was defeated by Jimmy Pappas, former Princeton runner, now with the Newark A. C., in the 50 yard dash but Elder won the 60 yard and 70 yard sprints decisively.

Pasadena, Jan. 30.—Dr. Hugh C. Wolfe of the University of Wisconsin recently arrived here to do research work at the California Institute of Technology.

For a definition of Dr. Wolfe's place in the world of science it is necessary to use his own words: "My method of research consists of the representation of particles participating in collisions by their relativistic four-vectors of energy and momentum—that is by the four dimensional vectors having as their components the three spatial components of the momentum of the particle and a fourth component whose magnitude is that of the energy of the particle divided by the speed of light, this also having the dimensions of momentum."

Gas Man Discovers Mouse That Sings

Wichita, Kas., Jan. 29.—This city is putting in another claim for fame as a versatile city—a very unusual claim too.

A singing mouse has been discovered by F. D. Long, employed at a filling station here.

Long recently was sitting alone in the office of his gas station when suddenly he heard a joyful trilling from a mysterious source. Upon investigating, he happened to glance at the window sill and there sat a mouse, warbling a song.

Long told friends of his singing mouse and at first they did not believe him but upon hearing with their own ears, a song sang by the mouse, they heartily agree that everything Long said is true.

FRANKLIN SQUARE

There will be an official board meeting after prayer service and young people's meeting at the Methodist church on Wednesday evening.

On last Wednesday night, Mrs. Wm. Wright entertained neighbors and friends in honor of Mr. Wright's birthday anniversary. A delicious dinner was served and the evening passed in a social manner. The honor guest received several nice presents. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wright, son Billie, of Salem, Gerald Eick, Mrs. Anna Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Eick, of Lisbon, were among the guests.

Miss Rachel Eiken is absent from school on account of illness.

A large delegation of residents on the Lisbon, Franklin Square and Salem road with a number of Leontonia people met at the commissioners' office Monday asking for the improvement of this road.

Today's Pattern

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

One way of persuading a prejudiced family to eat more greens is to serve them as salad. That means adding some favorite dressing—Russian, mayonnaise, Thousand Island, or what do they like?

Properly drained, even the leafy greens, like lettuce and chard and beet tops, can be shipped in as salad. They require first to be well drained, then finely chopped, and left for a few hours in small individual moulds. Little ramekins will do. When unmoulded on a lettuce leaf, and garnished with something colorful like pimento, or a slice of hard-boiled egg, it is a most attractive dish. A thick mayonnaise dressing is best for a leafy green salad—and most of the other cooked greens for that matter.

French dressing, while pleasant enough in flavor, will thin out the cooked greens, spoiling their appearance.

Some of the cooked greens are definitely preferred as cold salad rather than hot vegetables by many persons. Artichokes, asparagus, broccoli, leeks, brussels sprouts are extremely good served cold. Cook until tender in the ordinary way or drain and air if the canned vegetables are used and place in the refrigerator to chill. When they are quite dry, place on leaves of lettuce—either romaine, Simpson or endive. Serve the dressing separately.

Another way to pep up these cooked greens considerably is to cook and cool them. Then cover with a French dressing and let them "marinate" in it for a few hours. Just before serving, drain well and place on lettuce leaves.

Leeks are particularly recommended as a cooked greens salad. Really, this vegetable is unjustly ignored, because of its kinship with the onion. The fact is that when boiled the unpleasant sharpness disappears and both in texture and in flavor leeks are nearer asparagus than onion. They will take any dressing when cold—either French, or the thick cooked dressings or mayonnaise.

If chard is to be served, then there is both a hot and cold green available. The leaves when stripped are cooked as spinach, and the remaining ribs, cooked separately, are cooled and then served as a salad. Chard ribs haven't much flavor and require a snappy dressing. Add to the mayonnaise either chopped pickles, chopped chives, sliced stuffed olives and some chili sauce. (Which peppery accompaniment would make the flattest vegetable quite delicious.)

Cooked greens do not combine particularly well with raw greens—the limpness and crispness rather spoil each other. But some do combine well with other cooked vegetables. Cubes of boiled potatoes, beets, carrots, cooked chestnuts, if mixed with the dressing will make the cooked greens more palatable.

Another attractive way to serve cooked greens, cold is in aspic.

Gold Greens Aspic

1 large can tomatoes
1 small onion
1 tablespoon gelatin
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 teaspoon pepper
2 cups chopped cooked greens.
Tomatoes should be heated and strained, then mixed with other ingredients. Remove from fire and set aside to cool.

Any chopped greens may be added after being strained. They may be mixed with the gelatin then poured into a loaf and set in refrigerator to harden. Unmould when firm, cut into neat slices and place on lettuce leaf. Garnish with a spoonful of mayonnaise or Russian dressing. Or the gelatin mixture may be poured into a ring mould, and when hard unmould on a platter and fill center with chopped greens.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, Jan. 30.—Accessories are the most important things about sports attire these winter days.

On the smartest golf links around Paris women are carrying golf bags and umbrellas to match the color of their tweed. Even the sports spectator carries handbag and crook-handled walking stick covered with tweed to match her costume. In excellent contrast to a beige tweed suit is a scarf and bag of fine tweed in tomato-red; the scarf has a gray selvedge edge and the bag folds, to be held twice and then clamps with a metal fastener. One house is showing stunning novelty bags of value in wood. One model is of brown leather on one side and wood on the other, both "ambrose" and "thuya" woods being made in different ways.

A beret, scarf and muff come in a grey silk fabric made to resemble astrakhan. The muff has a flap under which is a bag closed with a zipper fastening. Another patterned bag which matches a scarf contains a diminutive umbrella less than one foot long.

Most effective pull-overs and wool coats contribute to chic sports ensembles. A black and white pull-over is knitted with a V neck bordered with delicate gray; the upper half of the garment is white, the hip-line section and the two are connected by a design of lines and large diamonds in fascinating manner. A white pullover of fine soft wool has a scattering of small black beads knitted into the weave and the same idea is reproduced in brilliant red with tiny black and white beads.

A blue and white tweed cardigan suit has a very short version of a sweater only 18 inches long and worn over a flannel shirt with blue bow at the neck.

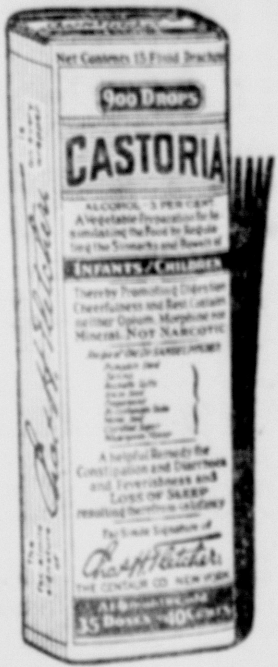

Paris.—French dogs will soon have their home and hospital modeled on the American Bide-a-wee societies. It will replace the old city pound and provide expert treatment for sick and homeless animals. There will be an ambulance ready at all hours to carry injured ones to the hospital and lost animals will be kept as long as possible and their owners traced.

When BABIES are upset

Baby ills and ailments seem twice as serious at night. A sudden cry may mean colic. Or a sudden attack of diarrhea—a condition it is always important to check quickly. How would you meet this emergency—tonight? Have you a bottle of Castoria ready? There is nothing that can take the place of this harmless but effective remedy for children; nothing that acts quite the same, or has quite the same comforting effect on them.

For the protection of your wee one—for your own peace of mind—keep this old, reliable preparation always on hand. But don't keep it just for emergencies; let it be an everyday aid. Its gentle influence will ease and soothe the infant who cannot sleep. Its mild regulation will help an older child whose tongue is coated because of sluggish bowels. All druggists have Castoria; the genuine bears Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper.

AVOID THE THREAT of the weight of age

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW* By refraining from over-indulgence

You men who would keep trim and fit . . . you women who covet the tantalizing curves of the truly modern figure—when tempted to do yourself too well, light a Lucky instead. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Eat healthfully but not immoderately. When your eyes are bigger than your stomach, light a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence, if you would maintain that lithe, youthful figure.

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Every one knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

"It's toasted"

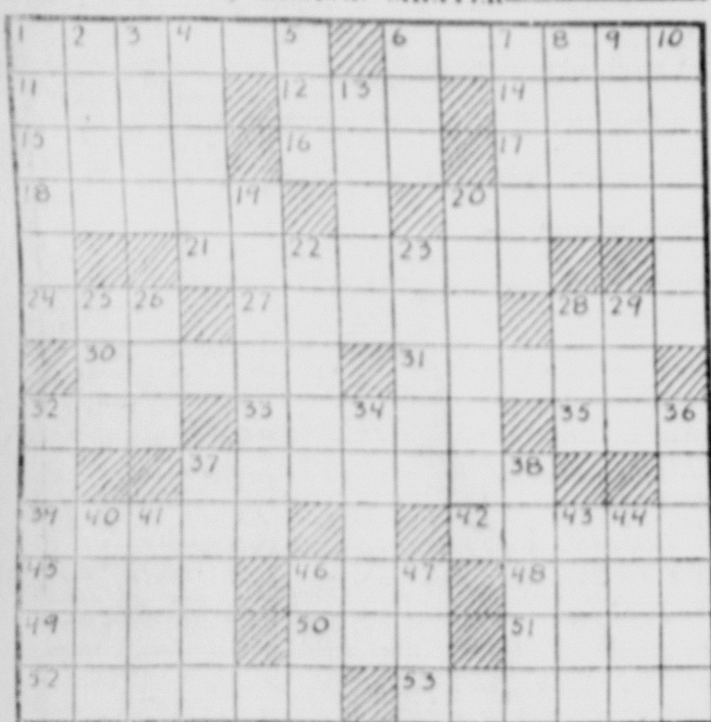

*Be Moderate! . . . Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

how it saves you money to put on Goodyears now

On the cool and wet roads of winter, new Goodyear treads wear slower even than in summer, mile for mile. An established fact!

You need sure gripping on all fours, these dangerous driving months. Stops for tire changes are more disagreeable, too.

Enjoy safety at one-half the summer cost per mile—and, because of slight tread wear, have tires like new when Spring comes.

With the larger allowance your present tires will bring, you get—practically free!—this safety and freedom from winter trouble, if you trade now for new Goodyears. Drop in—talk it over—or phone for our estimator.

WHY FAT MEN STAY FAT

"The trouble with me, and I guess this applies to 99 per cent of the men who are putting on weight, I didn't have the energy or 'pop' to keep it off. Lost all interest in my healthy activity and just lazed around accumulating the old pounds until I got that 'Kruschen feeling'."

Start taking Kruschen Salts—that's the common sense way to reduce—but don't take them with the idea that they possess reducing qualities in themselves.

This is what they do—they clean out the impurities in your blood by keeping the bowels, kidneys, and liver in splendid working shape and fill you with a vigor and tireless energy you'd most forgotten had existed.

As a result instead of planting yourself in an easy chair every free moment and letting flabby fat accumulate you feel an urge for activity that keeps you moving around doing the things you've always wanted to do and needed to do to keep you in good condition.

Then watch the pounds slide off! Kruschen Salts are the up-to-date Fountain of Youth. Take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot or cold water tomorrow morning and every morning—and if they don't change your whole idea about reducing, go back and get the small price you paid for them. Get an 83 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts—lasts 4 weeks—at The J. H. Lease Drug Co. Flodging's drug store, and Bolger & French's or any progressive drug store anywhere in the world.

Gained 25 Pounds, Thanks To New Konjola

And Different Medicine Put End To Quarter-Century of Misery

A remarkable, but true, Konjola seems at its best when pitted against the stubborn cases that have held on year after year, defying all medicines and treatments tried. Just see what Konjola did for Mrs. William Henning, Swanton, near Toledo. Read these words that should encourage all who are seeking better health:

"For twenty-five years I endured the agonies of indigestion, constipation, headaches and dizzy spells. My limbs and ankles were swollen to twice their normal size; I did not know what a good night's sleep was. I lost in weight and strength as I tried after medicine. I tried to help me. Konjola was recommended to me, and the wisest decision I ever made was when I decided to put this new medicine to the test. In five weeks I gained 25 pounds, and am enjoying today the best health I ever had. No wonder I am enthusiastic about this amazing medicine."

Konjola is sold in Salem at all J. H. Lease (Mr. Kaminsky's) drug stores, and by all the leading druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

BY-PRODUCTS OF STOCKYARDS TO CURE MANY ILLS

Chicago's Yards Assume New Role As Result Of Late Events

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Chicago's stockyards, sometimes called "the cow and hog butcher for the world," have assumed a new role as medicine chest for the world.

Through their medical by-products, mainly glandular preparations, the great packing houses of the union stockyards have become known throughout the world as one of the recognized centers of activity for the relief of suffering humanity.

Many Preparations
In the Armour laboratory 51 preparations, including liver extract, pepsin, pancreatin, extract of red marrow and pituitary liquid, are produced for the medical profession under the direction of Dr. Fred Penner, former city chemist of Chicago.

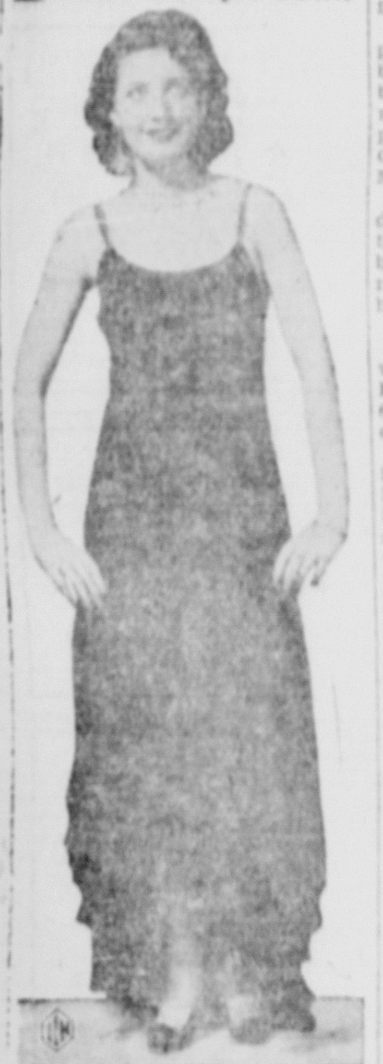

Recent discoveries have made animal liver, formerly thrown and given away, one of the most important sources for preparations for regenerating the blood. In addition many other medicinal agents are being made from the membranes and glands of hogs, cattle and sheep. Pepsin, from the lining of a pig's stomach, is used to aid digestion. Pancreatin, made from the hog's belly sweetbread, is employed to peptonize food for infants and invalids. For use in diseases due to lack of thyroid secretion, such as goiter, thyroid glands of sheep are ground into powder and made into tablets.

Heart Stimulant
Suprarenalin, a powerful astringent and heart stimulant is worth more than $5,000 a pound, but 135,000 sheep are necessary to produce that pound. The preparation is made from glands located just above the sheep's kidney. It is also used in bloodless operations on the eye and nose and in India it is used for cobra bites to stimulate heart action after the snake poison curdles the blood.

Liver extracts are used for the relief and cure of secondary and pernicious anemia.

Scientists declare that the use of animal glands as medicine is still in its infancy and that this by-product of the stockyards will in the future become one of the most important.

Parisian Fashion Princess Style Gown

A beautiful evening gown of black chiffon made Princess style is pictured above. The skirt trails in the back and fullness is added by means of many godets inserted in the tight-fitted slip. It is worn with rhinestone shoe buckles on the black suede pumps, shoulder straps are of rhinestones, and the ornate earrings are made of silver filigree and rhinestones.

On the Road to Fame

Kathleen Keating has made true the dreams of her parents and herself by appearing on the American opera stage. She is shown with her mother and father, of Wichita, Kansas. They are reading the card of "Fidelio" in which Kathleen appeared as Marcellina. She made her first theatrical appearance in one of her home town theatres. She recently made her debut with the Chicago Civic Opera Company, where she was wildly acclaimed by the audience and critics alike.

Scientist Follows Trail Of Early Sun God Worshippers

Avlon, Santa Catalina Island, Jan. 26.—A trail of human sacrifices leading to the temple of the Sun God of the ancient channel Indians, was followed today by Professor Ralph Glidden, archeologist.

Three of the four gates of the supposed temple of Chingchinch, that bloody deity of the long ago, have been unearthed. A rich reward of relic treasures awaits the third expedition in search of the east gate. Glidden is curator of the Catalina Museum.

At the north temple gate, Glidden found a large funeral urn containing the skeleton of a girl. He believes the girl, a princess from the richness of her ornaments, was a human sacrifice.

Hands of Skeleton
The small hands of the skeleton were clutching the rim of the urn. Beneath the urn lay the skeletons of 64 children, the heads forming a circle.

Still deeper in the soil, Glidden found the bones of a man who, in life, measured 7 feet 6 inches in height. He had been killed by a spear thrust. The flint spear-head was still imbedded in the chest. Pearl pendants, carved eagle claws, little bones of clam-shell, trinkets of carved bone and stone, and a jasper knife blade were found with the skeletons.

In the belief that the East gate of the temple had been buried by a prehistoric landslide, Glidden prepared to drive a tunnel under the ruins.

Two Spanish historians who accompanied the expeditions of Don Juan Cabrillo and Don Vasco to Catalina Island in 1542 and 1602, have left vivid word-pictures of the Indians they found there. Both Fr. Toquesmada and Fr. Geronimo de Zarate Zalmora saw the temple of Chingchinch.

Circle of Stones
At that early time, the temple consisted of a large circle of upright stones, similar to the Druid temple at Stonehenge, England. The stones were believed to point to the
